Curl Aberdeen

9:30am ARRIVAL

Networking and coffee.

10am MAIN EVENT - INTRODUCTION

Sandra Ross, Chief Officer of Aberdeen City Health and Social Care Partnership will outline our ambitions for localities, dispel myths, and highlight opportunities that moving to three localities could bring!

OUR JOURNEY SO FAR

Colleagues involved in managing our localities – both across the health and social care partnership and in the city's community planning priority communities – will provide highlights and mature reflections on our journey towards effective locality working so far!

WORKSHOP SESSION

your chance to share your highlights and lowlights of locality working!

BREAK

PUBLIC HEALTH IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS!

Head of Health Intelligence, Jillian Evans, will provide a rapid overview of what the national public health priorities mean for localities, especially around preventing ill health and early intervention.

WHERE IS OUR JOURNEY LEADING?

The Community Planning Partnership is currently refreshing the city's "Local Outcome Improvement Plan", and the Health and Social Care Partnership's Strategic Plan is also being revised – this session will provide a short refresh of these key strategies.

WORKSHOP SESSION

Your chance to help shape how we work together in localities going forward. How do we ensure that we collectively and collaboratively make a difference and improve outcomes for people in Aberdeen?
