Old Aberdeen Medical Practice

Dear Patient,

The Aberdeen City Health and Social Care Partnership (HSCP) manage a number of GP Practices in Aberdeen City, including Old Aberdeen Medical Practice. Last year we proposed that a number of GP Practices including Old Aberdeen, should be run by the GP's themselves. The vast majority of GP Practices in Grampian are run in this way. This local management brings benefits to both GP's and patients.

I am pleased to let you know that arrangements have now been made for Old Aberdeen Medical Practice to be run in future by Newburn Ltd., formerly known as Denburn Medical Practice. This is a group of clinical people who joined to create Newburn Ltd.

You do not need to take any action in response to this letter, you will remain on the Old Aberdeen Medical Practice List and you should notice no immediate changes.

If you have any queries about the new arrangements, please email to: gram.primarycaresupportachscp@nhs.scot, or call 01224 655625 to leave a message and a member of staff will call you back.

Yours faithfully

Sandra MacLeod
